Abductions Seen as Plot To Save Terrorist's Life

JERUSALEM (AP)—Two kidnappings of Britons resulted Monday in the placing of 90,000 Palestine Jews under house arrest, and British military forces postponed the execution scheduled Tuesday, of an alleged Jewish underground terrorist.

Simultaneously, Palestinian radio issued a country-wide warning to all British civilians to stay at home, declaring, "You are in danger of kidnapping."

Police officials said the kidnappings of a British woman, 24-year-old, and a British girl apparently were efforts by Iraqi and Arab underground organizations to head off the execution of Louis Bela Gruner, alleged Iraqi member convicted of participating in an attack on a police station.

The military planned a strict house-to-house search for the persons—described by police as armed Jews—abducted Judge Halil Windham from the Tel Aviv district court.

Police high commissioner, called two members of the Jewish agency, Kagan and Mrs. Golda Meyer, and government officials, to a conference on the kidnappings.

Police said they had no clue as to where the persons were, but that they were looking for them. The search and house-to-house search was ordered by the military, and the search was ordered by the military.

New YMCA Building

Those interested in the welfare of the youth of Edmonton will learn with satisfaction that the YMCA plans the erection of a new modern building in the early future. It is expected that a campaign to this end will be launched in the spring.

The present YMCA building, erected in 1907, is plainly obsolescent. It would be a pity if Edmonton people should neglect the obsolescence of these premises to handicap the work of the YMCA in this community.

That work is increasing with great rapidity. Individual participation in the regularly scheduled group groups, it is reported, increased from 31,107 in 1942 to 31,949 in 1943. In 1942 the aggregate attendance of individuals was 145,395. This increased to 220,000 in 1946.

Further statistics point out that the growth in greater participation. The most significant growth here give a very good indication, not only of the volume of work accomplished, but of its importance in Edmonton's life.

The YMCA makes a contribution to social and religious development that can be duplicated exactly by no other resource. Its approach to boys and young men is unique and its place in the Christian life of the community is vital and essential.

It is important, then, that this work should be carried on and expanded without interruption or embarrassment due to the end of the war. News that the YMCA is planning expansion is good news and it will meet the approval of all Edmonton people.

What About the Public?

An official of the coal miners' organization in the maritime provinces referring to the threat of a strike being called by the end of the month—says the miners are prepared to stand a long siege.

No doubt the mine operators are also in position to stand a shut-down extending into months, or all summer.

Both sides are busy ready for a stand-up-and-knock-out fight lasting through the rest of the winter, and perhaps until snow starts melting next autumn.

But what about the people who supply the money to pay miners' wages and operators' profits? Have they piled up enough coal to keep their families from freezing and the wheels in their industries turning while the prospective battle goes on?

They probably haven't. Consumers seldom on lay in large stocks of coal, and if they do, they are not likely to be able to get it. They are not likely to be able to get it. They are not likely to be able to get it.

ford to take chances on their personal being contaminated by notions of subjective freedom.

Lifting the curtain is of course no act of grace on the part of the authorities. They need to do that or the conference would not be held with Moscow present. Free publicity for the proceedings was a condition upon which it was agreed that Moscow should be the meeting place. Free publicity, that is, as far as the outside world is concerned.

Only in the case of Russia would it be necessary to make such a condition. In the other three of the Big Four Powers, freedom to think, speak and write is a basic principle of the constitution. Russia maintains a rigid censorship of news is the business of the Russians. Outsiders have no cause to complain, and no desire whatever to interfere. Except when, as in the present instance, they are involved in some event in Russia that is of importance to them.

The conference, the curtain will be dropped again and the black-out restored. Even during the gathering it will be lifted only enough to let out conference news. Despatches on other subjects will have to run the gauntlet of the censors.

Still, there are people in democratic countries who think or say they think they would like to live as the Russians do, behind darkened windows.

New Type Farm Help

One Congressman says he has solved the problem of why the United States has such a large potato crop last year that the surplus created another problem. He says D-D-T killed so many bugs the vines could not be kept from growing.

Maybe he meant it as a joke. Anyway it is an exaggeration. But an exaggeration always has a basis of fact. The potato is the underlying truth is more important than the reason for the big crop.

The chemist has joined crop farmer, gardener, orchardist in the food-production drive. He operates in three ways, and all of them are to kill the enemies. In both ways he has already achieved unprecedented success, and still further achievements in both directions.

The broad result of his efforts, coupled with those of the other scientists, is to provide a better cultivation machinery, is that now no one knows how many people a given area can support. The world is full of people who are not being fed, and the world is full of people who are not being fed.

BASEMENTS LESS HOUSE

BY HARPER PROWSE, M.L.A.

Experts who design modern homes have made much about the advantages of building a basement-less house. This idea was developed originally in the U.S. from observation of the fact that many people prefer to live in well-ventilated, airy, and relaxed because they have buckled so badly.

The STRANGE thing is that the foundations on these houses now go down to the basement. It is a waste of money. It would have been just as simple to have dug out the foundations of the houses and built them on the ground.

Vegeville Church Reports Busy Year

VEGEVILLE—Reporting one of its best years in its history, annual meeting of the Vegeville United church was held recently.

Church has had a successful year financially. Total raised for all purposes for the entire year lacked $25 of the $100 mark. All departments met their various allocations to head office and $850 was contributed to the capital portion fund drive of the United church across Canada.

Ninety-six young people and leaders planned and carried out a camp at the Y.M.C.A. camp at Lake Minn. Jasper.

There are three outside points on the Vegeville charge, Mundare, Leduc and Havelock. All have had successful years with a total of 12 new members.

General improvements have been made to the church property. A communion table, pulpit and eight chairs were purchased and dedicated in honor of the young men who paid the supreme sacrifice during the Second Great War. Squadron Leader Forbes, district command chaplain, was present as well as members of the Legion. A memorial organ was purchased and dedicated in loving memory of John Edmund Couch and Gordon Baker of Leduc who died during the recent conflict. The organ was installed in the Leduc United church, and the local western group purchased a bronze plaque and placed it on the organ.

Meeting closed with a congregational social at which Elsie Hill, principal of Leduc high school was guest speaker.

ASKED FOR IT
"Now, my friends," said the candidate, making another effort to arouse some enthusiasm in his audience, "what do we need in order to carry this constituency by the majority in its history?"

The response was immediate. "Another candidate," cried a voice from the back.

They're Pin-Ups for British Troops Alberta Beauties Have Admirers In Far Away Land of Egypt

Edmonton university co-eds have become pin-up glamour girls for the British Army in Egypt. Proving that the fame of the beauty and charm, of University of Alberta co-eds has spread far and wide, a letter was received by The Edmonton Bulletin Monday morning requesting that three of the co-eds in the November beauty contest correspond with three British soldiers on active service in Egypt.

Saw Pictures in Bulletin

The three British soldiers saw the pictures of the girls in the Saturday, Nov. 9 issue of The Edmonton Bulletin, and selected them from among the 25 U. of A. candidates as their choices. The soldiers are members of the 1st Battalion, Royal West Kent Regiment, M.E.L.F.

Over the pictures of the girls, each of the boys indicated his choice by writing his name. "Pie" Harry Brown, "A" company would like Miss Moret of Edmonton to correspond with him. "Pie" Brown, who is a lawyer, would like to hear from Miss Strickland and Pie, Eddie Baker, "A" company would like to correspond with Miss Ingersoll. Their letter read as follows: "Sir: For the first time in my life, we are proud possessors of one of your papers, The Edmonton Bulletin.

No Entertainment Whatsoever

"I am, myself with my two pals, British soldiers, serving in Egypt, where there is no entertainment whatever, and we have no ties, any of us, to friends to correspond with.

"I am writing this letter to you in hope that it is within your power to ask the young ladies who took part in the beauty competition to correspond with us.

"This may seem an irregular request but it is a sincere one, and if the young ladies by name Ingersoll, Strickland and Moret would possibly find time to correspond with three lonely British boys, it would be greatly appreciated.

"Hoping that you are our friends of the year sincerely, Yours Truly, Brown."

The addresses of the boys are as follows: 184817, Pie Brown, "A" Coy, "A" Coy, Pie B. White, "C" Coy, Pie B. Baker, "A" Coy, all of the 1st Bn. Royal West Kent Regiment, M.E.L.F.

Don't Know What To Think

Two of the girls, Miss Strickland and Ingersoll, who are training in nursing courses, were awakened from their slumbers by the letter from the young ladies, while the third, Miss Moret, was a lecturer.

"I don't know what to think," said Miss Moret, "It is very flattering to see the least and it is amazing that the news has travelled so far."

"I will be very happy to write to the boys, or boys-on a patriotic and platonic basis."

Miss Strickland said, "I'm not that amazed and excited, I'm very flattered and I will certainly go out of my way to write." Miss Ingersoll, echoed the expressions of the other two co-eds.

"It's most exciting to think that in glamorous, romantic and exciting Egypt there are men interested in us away over here, I will be very happy to write to the boys."

PENNSYLVANIA MOTHER OFFERS EYE IN RETURN FOR CHILDREN'S SECURITY

TOMOKI NAKAMURA, "THE RABBIT," SENTENCED TO 12 YEARS IN TOKYO

Copyright, 1947, by Acme Newspictures, Inc.

TWO-TROUSERED SUITS ARE BACK—Two-trousered suits, a policy of clothes manufacturers discontinued during the war, are again offered to post-war buyers. Here eager men make their selections in a New York City haberdashery.

FRESHMAN LEGISLATOR—New Republican State Assemblywoman from Norwich, N. Y., Mrs. Janet Hill Gordon, dictates to her secretary, Virginia Taranto, in the Albany apartment loaned by a friend. Mrs. Gordon, also a lawyer, carries on their law practice while the youthful lawmaker attends the legislature.

"THE RABBIT" GETS 12 YEARS—Flanked by U. S. M.P.'s former Jap lieutenant Tomoki Nakamura, known to allied prisoners of war as "The Rabbit," is escorted from the court room, Tokyo after being sentenced to 12 years of hard labor for misappropriating Red Cross supplies. The former camp commandant is a graduate of St. John's and Northwestern Universities.

A GREAT OFFER—Mrs. Marie Didion, 51, of Edinboro, Pa., awaits acceptance of her offer to give one of her eyes in exchange for a home and security for her 12 children and two grandchildren, Norma Marion, left, and Kay Anne Didion.

A DOG'S LIFE—Doggiest thing in modern marketing conveniences is this "park your dog station" at a San Carlos, Calif., market. Customers, quick to see obvious advantages, use the improvised kennels while they do their marketing.

TOP FIGURE—Gertrude Niesen, above, became Broadway's highest paid female entertainer recently when she signed a contract to appear in a New York night club at $7,500 a week and a percentage of the gross.

ON THE MEND—His foot still in its cast, Yankee slugger outfielder Joe DiMaggio props his leg on a chair as he chats with a friend, George Selatos, in a New York hotel. DiMaggio underwent an operation for removal of a bone spur on his left heel.

BOARD DIRECTORS—Looking like top-drawer business executives with their legs supported by the table, this aggregation of dancers takes time out between movie takes at a Hollywood studio. The girls were recruited from all sections of the U. S.

BRITISH TROOPS TAKE OVER—When truckmen and others in allied occupations went out on strike in London, British soldiers took over their duties. The strike involved 50,000 men. Here British soldiers move meat in London's Smithfield Market.

CHOW LINE—These officers, with the exception of the member of the clergy, are all U. S. Navy admirals and all from Michigan. They are part of the group of 17 admirals who attended the first annual dinner of the Detroit Region, Navy Industrial Association.

Doubt Extensive Tax Cuts To Follow Expected Surplus

By John Bird

OTTAWA—While there is a good prospect the government will end the financial year with something like a $200,000,000 surplus, roughly $100,000,000 of this will be accounted for by sales of War Assets Corporation, and is therefore non-recurring revenue.

Financial officials in Ottawa, therefore, tend to discount current rumors of tax slacking based upon this surplus. They say, furthermore, that because of trading credits granted to other governments, Canada will end the year with increased, not decreased debt. It would be unwise, they say, to regard the whole total of foreign credits as recoverable.

The government's financial advisers are against too much tax slacking, and would prefer to see the omnibus bill last year's conservative course of announcing moderate decreases in corporation and personal income taxes to take effect only next year.

Pressure May Bring Cut
But some of these advisers cheerfully admit political pressure may be too great and concessions may have to be made to the revenue tax payer. There is a point where John P. Miller of the standard pocketbook takes over and disrupts the best laid plans of financial advisers.

At parliament pressure to meet, it appears taxation will be the issue to be pressed by the Progressive-Conservative, with assistance from the C.C.P. in the matter of relief for taxpayers in the lower income brackets only.

Persistent rumors reach the capital that the government will reduce luxury taxes, and particularly taxes on cigarettes, cigars and tobacco. Not so much is heard about liquor taxes. But they, too, will come up for consideration later. At present, out of the retail price of a bottle of liquor, roughly 40 percent goes to the government in taxes, another 40 percent to the province and 20 percent to the distiller.

Tobacco Use High
As for cigarette consumption is high even at the price of 35 cents a package for cigarettes that were 30 cents before the war. There is no question that lowering the tax on all forms of tobacco would be a popular move.

Anticipating the budget, the government's best kept secret of the year, is always a popular game. This year's guess is that public pressure will force some relief but that the government will fight against too drastic tax cuts. The government is committed to the principle of "fiscal budgeting" and also is making heavy expenditures for social services and federal grants to the provinces.

Under the theory of cyclical budgeting taxes have to remain rigid.

Claim Nazis Seek Return to Power By Controlling Democratic Groups

LONDON (AP)—The international committee for the study of European questions charged Saturday that a Nazi network in Germany whose strength "is increasing more and more each month" was laying the groundwork to reorganize power through control of Allied-located democratic institutions.

The committee, which includes many outstanding British, French, Belgian, Danish and Dutch leaders, said the exhaustive report of trends in Germany was given to the prime minister and foreign ministers of the various Allied powers Friday.

"The Nazi party has recovered from the first shock of Germany's defeat and is quietly reorganizing for a return to power through capturing control of the democratic institutions set up by the Allies," the report declared.

FRANKFURT (AP)—A new right-wing political party campaigned Sunday in American-occupied Germany as the greatest enemy of "Socialism and Communism" and as an advocate of the "immediate federation of Europe."

The "National Democratic party of Germany" its leaders said, has been given until Feb. 15 by United States military government to prove whether it can muster enough support to warrant its opening in more than its present seven counties in the state of Hesse.

The party has admitted being so "unapologetically right-wing" that its terms end the powerful church-backed parties of southern Germany "leftist."

REGENSBURG, Germany (AP)—Flourishing behind the barred wire of the Regensburg internment camp, a fantastic "Nazi paradise" was disclosed Saturday by a Bavarian government investigation.

State Commissioner Joseph Eder reported those abuses: A former SS, major-general acted as adviser to the camp de-Nazification court. German newspapers, attending court hearings, were "grossly insulted" by internment. A former SS division commander became camp labor supervisor. Police guards, living in poverty on an average salary of 80 marks ($1 monthly), were easy prey to bribery.

MOTIVE CLEAR
"You say this woman shot her husband with this pistol and at once 'bang!' said the corner of the eye-witness to the colored tragedy."
"Yassu."
"Are there powder marks on his body?"
"Yassu. Does why she shot him."

Tries Avert Hanging Off 43 SS. Guards

DACHAU, Germany (AP)—Lt. Col. W. M. Everett Monday was reported en route to Washington to carry an appeal to the United States supreme court on behalf of 43 German SS troops condemned to be hanged for the slaughter of 700 United States soldiers captured during the Battle of the Bulge.

Col. Everett, defence counsel, was reported carrying a criticism of the case, known as the "Maintry" "massacre."

Everett's review charged United States interrogators obtained confessions from the SS men by beating and mistreating them. He asserted 90 percent of the evidence "consists of lies and fraudulently procured confessions."
